- 1: It describes what sort of work would suit the basic temperament
- 2: Goes into specific aptitudes and skills, based on particular configurations
- 3: Deals with the issues of limitations and problems someone might have to confront
- 4: Describes the attitude a person has toward success and achievement
- 5: It shows us what essential values a person needs to express in order to feel that they are making the best of their lives.

12 MONTH TRANSITS REPORT

Author Robert Hand

Knowing about your transits can help you to cope better with crises and difficulties and to make the best of the opportunities coming your way. The following topics that this report covers are listed below.

- 1: What would be appropriate in your life just now?
- 2: What will next year bring
- 3: Why is life a big struggle at the moment?
- 4: Are there opportunities coming your way?

This Transit Report sheds light over the next 12 months upon the mysterious qualities of time.

PERSONAL HOROSCOPE CALENDAR

Author Robert Hand

This unique daily calendar based on your personal transits offers information about the daily astrological influences affecting your life.

You know from experience that on some days nothing goes right and on others everything seems to go your way. Why some days you are depressed or sad, need contact or want to withdraw and on others your mood is high.

In the Personal Horoscope you can read in advance about the Transit that will influence you on a particular day or seek to understand with hindsight why things happened as they did.

Whilst the 12 month Transit Report deals with the underlying influences of longer periods in your life, the Personal Horoscope Calendar looks at each day separately, so both complement each other in an ideal way.

This report is also available to order, for one month of transits only.

About DR LIZ GREENE

Dr Liz Greene holds a PhD in psychology and is a qualified Jungian analyst. She is also a leading international astrologer and astrological author. She is one of the main figures in modern psychological astrology and modern psychology of the subconscious. Dr Liz Greene is the author of many books on astrology.

About Dr Alois Treindl

Originally Dr Treindl studied physics and did his doctorate in experimental solid state physics. Founder of Astrodienst Zurich, the world’s foremost astrological computing service, today he is a computer programming expert and an astrologer.

About Astro * Intelligence

Astro* Intelligence psychological horoscope reports employ leading edge knowledge and technology to produce unique and accurate astrology readings, in contrast to the very limited “cook book” (and often self contradictory) approach commonly found in computerised chart readings.

Dr Liz Greene’s rules of interpretation and her own text have been placed in an expert system developed jointly with Dr Alois Treindl. Because the system can “think” about horoscopes in a very similar way to Liz Greene herself, a chart reading is produced which puts the subject in the closest possible psychological focus.

About ASTRO*INTELLIGENCE Psychological Horoscope Reports

Astrology and psychology can help you recognise and further develop your own personality. The world famous astrologer and Jungian psychoanalyst, Dr Liz Greene, has merged these two ways one's personality and brought them closer to many people through her books, lectures and personal counselling practice.

Now you can tap into Dr. Greene's vast knowledge in the form of a range of personal horoscope analyses—thanks to the extremely sophisticated modern computer programming technique known as artificial intelligence, which allows the computer to “think” much like a human mind. It is the use of artificial intelligence, which distinguishes the Astro*Intelligence reports from most other computer generated astrology reports.

Dr. Liz Greene's expertise as a certified Jungian psychoanalyst allows her to reveal much that is missed in a conventional astrological reading. By digging below the surface she uncovers the hidden forces in your psyche and identifies the archetypal patterns which govern your inner and outer lives.

In addition Dr. Liz Greene gives you practical advice on harmonising any conflicts and developing new paths to personal integration and more fulfilling personal relationships. Dr Greene's reports are the only ones available which speak directly to you as an individual, not relying at all on stock phrases and time worn clichés to make their point

The reports are generally about 20 pages long (the Yearly Analysis is about 40 pages) beautifully laser printed and bound with attractive covers

NATAL HOROSCOPE REPORT

Liz Greene

The natal psychological horoscope analyses the following aspects of your birth chart:

- 1: Your strengths and weaknesses
- 2: The main characters within your psyche conscious and unconscious aspects of your personality
- 3: The psychological atmosphere during your childhood and within your family
- 4: Typical patterns in your relationships
- 5: Your way towards integration and development

The text by Liz Greene is lively and thought provoking, without jargon, and is psychologically very profound. The analysis is a serious discussion of an adult person's issues in life and it is therefore not available for children under 14

YEARLY HOROSCOPE ANALYSIS

Liz Greene

The yearly horoscope analysis, analyses the following aspects of your next 12 months using transits and progressions

- 1: Inner ups and downs with those individual inner situations that are often mysteriously connected with corresponding events in the outer world
- 2: Briefly hints at the areas of life in which outer events could happen.
- 3: Inner changes in consciousness
- 4: Deeper individual meaning of the year

LONG TERM HOROSCOPE (6 years)

Liz Greene

In these exciting and challenging years at the beginning of a new century, we are particularly attuned to the currents of the time and able to respond more acutely, with greater hopes and increased creativity. This period is different from the others because it happens to coincide with the changing of the astrological ages. For the first time in 250 years Pluto has entered Sagittarius, Neptune is finally again in Aquarius, this time together with Uranus. Each of us is touched in a different way by these collective constellations, depending on the placements in the birth chart.

Liz Greene analyses these individual connections and other important transits and progressions for the coming years in the Long-Term Perspective - Horoscope for 6 Years.

She also explains what influences there are on the generation group to which we belong, as well as the horoscope of the country where we live.

RELATIONSHIP HOROSCOPE

Liz Greene

Why do we feel attracted to some people, and not to others?

Why does love fade away in some cases and continue in others? Why does love mean happiness and fulfilment for some people and for others hate and destruction?

Psychology and astrology can offer many insights into the inner mechanisms of relationships.

This report centres on the following topics

- 1: What brings you together
- 2: What the two of you create
- 3: Your relationship and yourself

Psychology and astrology can offer many insights into the inner mechanisms of relationships. Such insights can help us to find our way through the often uncertain sphere of love more consciously and with more alternatives and choices.

CHILD/INNER CHILD HOROSCOPE

Liz Greene

The Child Horoscope is especially written for parents who want to enable their child to find and follow its own way right from the start. This report will point out tendencies, hint at potentials for development and indicate natural spheres of interest before experiences with the environment, social restrictions or other influences start to push or pull in another direction. It also affords parents and teachers many insight towards understanding the behaviour of a child and Liz Greene uses her enormous experience and deep insights into the development of the human personality to treat this matter with great care and sensitivity towards the parents as well as, most importantly of all, towards the children.

Topics are

- 1: The child's psychological type
- 2: Perspectives of development
- 3: The relationship with the parents
- 4: Important personality traits
- 5: Emotional needs
- 6: Fears

For an adult, this report offers an “inner child” guide, valuable insights into patterns and processes of their childhood.
